Obituary

Edith York Davis departed this life January 13, 2001 in Virginia Baptist Hospital. Born in Lynchburg, Virginia on November 12, 1918. She was the daughter of the late James W. York and Jannette F. York. She is survived by two sisters Amanda L. Williams and Pearl E. Bailey of Philadelphia, PA. A devoted niece Evonne Y. Parrish and a host of nieces, nephews, great nephews, great nieces, great - great nephews, cousins and friends.

She joined Court Street Baptist Church at an early age. She was an active and faithful member until ill health prevented her from attending. She was educated in the Lynchburg Public Schools and graduated from Dunbar High School in 1936. After graduating from high school she attended Virginia State College. She was a SilverLife member of the NAACP and a former member of the Primrose Social Club. She was an active member of other organizations. She was an employee of the Lynchburg Public School Systems for many years. She retired from Linkhorne Middle School as Librarian Assistant in October 1984.

She was a very caring person and a reliable friend to many. She will be sadly missed by family and those lives she inspired, influenced and mentored.

Every now and then, Edith knew and felt some of life's aches and pains. But when the Lord God called this quiet, unassuming Christian lady ran swiftly to greet Him....

*Sometimes it's hard to understand why some things have to be,
But in His wisdom God has planned beyond our power to see.*

So looking back in tenderness along the paths we've tread.

We cherish the years we've had with you.

Now rest on my dear, enjoy this time, face to face with God.

God saw the road was getting rough,

The hills too hard to climb.

So He closed your weary eyes.

And whispered peace be thine.
